Sunday November 17th—Pray for the persecuted

Fazal, a displaced Afghan Christian, was recently arrested in another country for sharing his faith. Police released him after he paid a significant fine. Since his arrest, Fazal has moved from house to house to avoid authorities, and he fears being returned to the Taliban. “If I go to Afghanistan, the Taliban will kill me,” he said. “There is no clear future right now. . . but I know Jesus is always with me.” Pray for Fazal and all our Afghan brothers and sisters.”
