

Resilience on God in 2025

Sunday April 13th – Pray for the persecuted

Malak is an Algerian Christian who, after committing his life to Christ, had his wife divorce him, and now he rarely sees his children. He has also been accused of proselytizing, which can lead to a jail sentence. Pray for Malak and other Algerian Christians like him and pray that Algerian Christians will have greater freedom to meet and worship and speak about their faith.
